

Future Perfect Continuous Negative Form 1

Make negative future perfect continuous sentences.

1. By the end of the week, she _____ (not/sew) clothes for her boutique.
2. By this time tomorrow, they _____ (not/chase) leads for the new project.
3. By next summer, we _____ (not/navigate) the river for a full day.
4. By the time the event ends, the organizers _____ (not/rehearse) the schedule for hours.
5. By next weekend, I _____ (not/compose) new poems for the writing competition.
6. By the time you call, we _____ (not/discuss) the details for hours.
7. By next spring, we _____ (not/train) for the marathon for six months.
8. By this evening, they _____ (not/paint) the house for three days.
9. By Christmas, the snow _____ (not/fall) steadily for weeks.
10. By next fall, they _____ (not/broadcast) the series for over a year.

Answers

1. By the end of the week, she won't have been sewing clothes for her boutique.
2. By this time tomorrow, they won't have been chasing leads for the new project.
3. By next summer, we won't have been navigating the river for a full day.
4. By the time the event ends, the organizers won't have been rehearsing the schedule for hours.
5. By next weekend, I won't have been composing new poems for the writing competition.
6. By the time you call, we won't have been discussing the details for hours.
7. By next spring, we won't have been training for the marathon for six months.
8. By this evening, they won't have been painting the house for three days.
9. By Christmas, the snow won't have been falling steadily for weeks.
10. By next fall, they won't have been broadcasting the series for over a year.

